A Protestant on Catholicism.
Archbishop Satrioli's most important errand has been to settle the heated controversies regarding the school question. He has communicated to the Catholic archbishops an eminently wise and reasonable pronouncement. It distinctly acknowledges the educational functions of the state and approves the American public schools. In practical effect this letter makes it permissible for Catholic parents to act upon their own judgment in selecting schools for their children. It merely insists that the parents and priests should see that Catholic children have regular religious instruction outside of school hours if they attend public schools. The "Tatnault plan" is fully sanctioned as an alternative. In cases where parochial schools of as good quality as the public schools can be afforded, and where local circumstances make it appear that the public schools are anti-Catholic in their influence and teaching, the separate system is advised.
The archbishop has spoken with full authority. It is a great victory for Archbishop Ireland and the patriotic American wing of the church. Pope Leo and his advisers have evidently misinterpreted the situation in the United States. The holy see has intervened in favor of American Catholic parents, who can no longer be restrained from sending their children to the public schools. The Catholic church will be stronger by far when, in the spirit of Archbishop Satrioli's statesmanlike address, it accepts the institutions of this country. —W. T. Stead in Review of Reviews.

The Impetuous Press.
What are we coming to if the press is going to take the starch out of everything? An esteemed contemporary—we have forgotten which one—has complained that the reports of the daily press have made the recent history trial appear ridiculous in the eyes of the public. The dignity and mystery of theological discussions, once so awful that angels scarcely dared to tread the platform where the discussion was carried on, have been reduced to a commonplace comparable to the reports of a ward meeting or a filibustering session in congress.
The impetuous press persists in treating everything and everybody in an exaggerated sort of way. Even religion has to undergo the same treatment. If there is any such thing as mysticism or superstition it is liable to be handled as a defect to be handled in an embroiled. The press as a rule, believes in pure and un-dilted religion, but it wants a religion that is good for Monday and Thursday and Saturday as well as Sunday.
It is complained by some Roman Catholic authorities that the press is uncertainly meddling with the alleged controversy between the archbishops, and that the lady of the church is being stirred up by a contest which ought to have been confined to the pulpit and settled by them. But everything is news, and so important a matter as alleged insubordination in the high places of the Catholic church can no more be kept quiet in these days than could the outbreak of a volcano on Manhattan island. It does not detract from the dignity and mystery of ecclesiasticalism to have its quarrels reported in the papers, but it cannot be helped except in one way. Let quarrels cease and the press will quit its impertinence. —Springfield Union.

Reading the Thermometer.
A bellboy at the St. Nicholas, who wall one day and his mistress, a girl with this peculiar notion, not dimmed by a collegiate education, made a funny remark to Clerk Harry Clark one morning last week. A guest of the house on the morning in question came down to the office and remarked to Clark that the water must be very cold, asked what the thermometer indicated. Climbing up the bellboy Clark asked him to go out and see what the thermometer indicated. If he did not find the water cold, he was to return and when asked how cold it was, he quickly replied that it was "a little below freezing." Clark believed a certain little portion of the archbishop's address in the morning.

STATE LINE MILLS.
Clear and Common Lumber
Laths, Shingles,

Address: S. A. HAMLIN, Reno, Nev., or Marmol, Nev.

Every United States Senator elected in States west of the Mississippi this year is an avowed advocate of free coinage, as are also the Senators appointed from Montana and Wyoming, whose Legislatures failed to elect Senators. White of California approves of the free coinage plank of the Populist platform. Stewart of Nevada places the remonetization of silver above all party and political considerations. Martin of Kansas is for silver all the time, as is also Roach of North Dakota. Beckwith, appointed by the Governor of Wyoming, though nominally a Democrat, is a pronounced free coinage man, as is also Mantle of Montana, who was appointed Senator by the Governor of that State.

The truth of the assertion of the Silver party in the recent campaign that the financial question is the paramount political issue of the day is now conceded by the candid men of all political parties. They are the tariff question relegated to the rear by the new Administration and the silver issue brought prominently to the front. As there is as wide a difference between the new Democratic Senators from the West and the old Democratic Senators such as Gorman, Gray and McPherson from the East on the silver question as there is between Stewart and Sherman, it is becoming daily more and more evident that there is to be a new alignment of parties. The contest is between Wall street and the people of the agricultural and mining States of the West and South. If Wall street dictates the policy of the Administration and dominates in Congress the purchase and coinage of silver bullion will cease. If Western and Southern influences prevail legislation favorable to silver will be enacted, and prosperity will be restored to the West.

The struggle will be fierce when Congress convenes, and may not be ended before the elections next year, in which event then should every Nevada who places prosperity before Wall street ascendancy rally to the silver standard and give the Silver party a larger majority even than it received last November.

BITTERED EX-OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The rule established by President Cleveland that no office-holder under his first Administration will be reappointed had a cooling effect on the ardor of many Democrats, but a supplemental decree just issued has sent their temperature below zero. This is in substance that the rule against reappointment will be enforced if the applicant seeks a different office from that which he held before, or any other applicant has equally good standing and indorsements.

When this was made public at Washington over five hundred ex-officials left the city and as March hares and sweating the President is a Magwump. They feel bitter and they think of the shout they sent up for Cleveland at Chicago, and forced his nomination against the wishes and votes of the New York delegation. They think that they should be rewarded for the active part they took in the campaign, and those from States such as Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho and Nevada who held out against the masses of the people simply and solely in the hope of getting their old places are grievously disappointed.

A person who held Federal office under his first Administration had had his full share of Federal pay, and has no just cause for complaint, as only a small percentage of the members of a party can get a Federal position, and he reasons that if the States which gave Weaver their electoral votes had not done so Harrison would have received them, as each and all of them had been Republican States heretofore.

There is a difference of opinion in the East as well as in the West regarding the annexation of the Sandwich Islands. The Union League Club of New York opposes annexation, but Senator Jones, now in that city, favors it. He says he anticipates the return of the Hawaiian treaty to the Senate this week, with a recommendation that the Hawaiian people be given a opportunity to say whether or not they desire to become a part of the United States. He thinks it will do no harm to make haste slowly in this matter, and would not be surprised if a commission is sent to the islands.

There is blood on the moon in Elko county. The Elko Independent accused Assemblyman Massey of "having fallen down" on the proposed lottery amendment to the Constitution. Mr. Massey, in a note to the editor of the Independent, says that if he means to say that he (Massey) changed his opinion and vote upon that subject through corrupt or other influences he states a lie. Both gentlemen announce that they will be in Elko this week, indicating that pistols or an explanation will be in order. They were opposing candidates for the Legislature last November.

The city of St. Louis imposed a tax of $5 each upon telegraph poles. The telegraph companies refused to pay, and appealed to the courts. The Supreme Court of the United States sustained the legality of the tax, and St. Louis is deriving a large revenue from the poles.

Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

CLEVELAND'S LINE OF POLICY.

Corbett's Terms for a Meeting With Jackson.

HEADS OF COMMITTEES SO FAR.

Republican National League.

New York, March 14.—A call for the annual convention of the Republican National League to meet in Louisville, Ky., on Wednesday, May 10th, was issued today. The ratio of representation will be six delegates-at-large from each State and Territory, four from each Congressional district and one from each College Republican Club in the United States.

In the course of the call it said: "The struggle did not end in 1892. As Abraham Lincoln, in the hour of previous Republican defeat so truthfully said, all Republicans may say with fidelity now: 'The fight must go on; the cause of human liberty must not be surrendered at the end of one or even one hundred defeats.' It must go on until the weak and helpless of all classes and conditions are protected under the laws, and until the day shall come, demanded by the general public, when the rights of a Republican shall be fully admitted and fully protected at every voting place in the land as the rights of a Democrat."

In closing the call says: "This convention, held on South ground, especially invites an attendance from all Southern States, and hopes to make historical this Republican meeting in the State which is sacred with the traditions of Henry Clay, Abraham Lincoln and James G. Blaine."

The national convention of the American Republican College League will be held at the same place on May 11th.

Corbett and Jackson.

GALLEGHER, Ill., March 14.—Champion Corbett, in an interview regarding Peter Jackson's proposition to fight him in case Mitchell fails to appear, said: "At the same time I arranged the match with Mitchell I offered to arrange a contest with Peter Jackson to take place seven months after my fight with Mitchell. I covered $2,500 which accompanied the challenge, thus binding myself and allowing Jackson the privilege of withdrawing from the match with me in case of my defeat by Mitchell. The terms did not suit Jackson and he withdrew the forfeit money and announced his retirement from the ring. Since Goddard's defeat, however, by Corbett with the ridiculous proposition that I guarantee him $5,000 for training expenses in order that he may be in condition to take Mitchell's place next December, Mitchell should think. If Jackson wished to fight me seven months after I meet Mitchell the original proposition is still before him, and if Mitchell should fight in any way between now and next December I am perfectly willing that Jackson should take his place, but he will have to pay his own training expenses if he wants to fight me for the title I hold."

In closing, Corbett said it was finally decided to-day that he should train for his fight on the farm of W. A. ...

Heads of Committees.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Democratic caucus finished its labors to-day, so far as the reorganization of committees of the Senate was concerned. Either upon a standing or select committee, places were found as chairman, for all the new Democratic Senators. The Republicans were given eleven committees, just the number they gave the Democrats. The chairman of the important committees as given by O'Gorman, are as follows: Agriculture, George; Appropriations, Cookrell; Contingent Expenses, White of Louisiana; Coast Defense, Gordon; Education and Labor, Kyle; Finance, V. Orbe; Foreign Relations, Morgan; Immigration, Hall; Irrigation and Reclamation of Arid Lands, White; Military Affairs, Wadhall; Mines, Stewart; Naval Affairs, McPherson; Pensions, Palmer; Public Lands, B. Ry; Railroads, Camden.

The list is complete with the exception of the assignment of the Senator from Wyoming. The Republicans decline to give out anything to-night but will report to the Republican caucus to-morrow.

At the Head of the Commission.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Callers at the White House to-day were not as numerous as on previous days. Representative Springer of Illinois presented the name of Edgar Morrison of Morrisonville, a cousin to William R. Morrison, with an application for appointment as Consul to Kanagawa, Japan.

With Secretary Gresham came ex-Congressman Blount of Georgia, who was Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs of the last Congress. Mr. Blount was summoned to Washington by telegraph and arrived this morning. In a little while Blount was sent for and proceeded to the Cabinet room, where he remained for some time. It is said he will be at the head of the commission which is to be sent immediately to Hawaii and his presence in Washington was for the purpose of receiving instructions.

DULUTH, March 14.—An interesting and rather sensational suit is now on trial in the District Court in this county. H. Hodgson, John D. Hears and Joel Gleason, prominent wool growers of Glendive, Montana, who are the plaintiffs in the suit, sue to recover $25,000 worth of wool in transit, destined for West Superior, and which was seized on the Minnesota side to help satisfy a debt said to be due the Farmers' National Bank of Glendive, from the West Superior woolen mill. It is alleged to be an old debt contracted by E. J. Salt, manager of the West Superior concern, but formerly a resident of Glendive. The plaintiffs are the original consignors, who claim that the wool could not be legally seized while in transit to satisfy the debt of the consignee.

Cleveland's Line of Policy.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—President Cleveland decided upon the line of policy to be pursued in the appointment of consuls which is expected to materially expand the trade of the United States with foreign countries, and especially with the South and Central American Republics. His policy is to select men for appointment to consular positions who have exceptional business qualifications and possess sufficient trade instinct to recognize the outlet for American merchandise and ability to aid in working up a market for the product of American manufacturing and farms. The President said that of course political reasons cannot be entirely ignored in the selection of consuls, but particular stress will be laid upon the business abilities of the men whose names were presented to him.

Plenty of Free Gold.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The free gold in the Treasury has built up till it aggregates more than $5,000,000. Several offers were to-day received from western points aggregating $300,000. Secretary Carlisle is accepting these offers as fast as he can supply small treasury notes for them. Only the most advantageous offers are now accepted. The Treasury Department is also accumulating gold in the ordinary course of business, though no offers of gold in any considerable amount were received by the Treasury from Eastern bankers.

An Ogdun Blaze.

OGDEN, March 14.—The Utah Loan and Trust Company building was totally destroyed by fire this morning. Among the firms who lost are: J. W. McNutt & Co., druggists; Putnam Clothing House; Beiman Brothers, who lease tobacco establishment; W. H. Smith, law library, $8,000; Evans & Rogers, law library, $10,000.

The building originally cost $200,000. The estimated loss is $125,000; insurance, $55,000.

A Long March.

CHIHUAHUA, Mexico, March 14.—The Secretary of War ordered the One Hundred and Tenth regiment of cavalry to march through the very heart of the turbulent Yaqui Indian country. Besides the danger of being completely exterminated by the Indians the regiment must make one of the longest and most difficult marches ever undertaken in Mexico. After having made the trip it is 800 miles from Sonora to this place.

The Narcotic Still Missing.

LONDON, March 14.—The mail steamer which arrived at Lisbon from the Azores to-day brings no tidings of the missing White Star Line steamer, Narcotic. The officials will not abandon hope until after the next two mails from the Azores, but the general opinion among shippers is that the Narcotic is lost.

A Double Killing.

GREENVILLE, Tex., March 14.—While resisting arrest Warren Kiekman, a negro, shot and mortally wounded City Marshal Valvino, who managed to return fire, killing Kiekman.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—The forecast for Nevada is occasional rain or snow and warmer in the northern portion, followed by warmer weather.

The Broad telephone company has controlled the telephone business for twelve years, expired by limitation last Tuesday. The field is now open to all competitors.

A Well Traveled Letter.

A Rockville man about nine months ago received a letter from his brother, employed on a steamship running out of Bombay, India, asking him to send a United States $5 gold piece, which he wanted to wear as a watch charm. He obtained the coin, inclosed it between two pieces of heavy cardboard, put it in a letter and registered it. The letter started on its way, and Friday it returned to the Rockville office. The envelope presented a remarkable appearance and is a great curiosity, having traveled over 50,000 miles. The letter went to the local letter office at Bombay, and the coin had disappeared, having probably worn its way out of the letter.

The letter went to various points in the east, as well as England and the continent, in search of the person to whom it was addressed. Every stoppage is registered on the letter, which is covered with marks and writings in all colors. The letter was returned by Postmaster Randall to the man who sent it, and although the coin is missing he considers the letter of more value than when he sent it.—Norwich Bulletin.

Active Retirement.

It is said that Emile Zola has gone into retirement to finish his new novel, "Doctor Pascal." How many persons would be wishful that this distinguished Frenchman would stay in retirement right along, if he were not so perniciously active when in that situation. Under the circumstances the world would not be a whit the worse off if Zola never went into retirement at all.—St. Paul Dispatch.

A Noble Endowment.

By the death of Mrs. John C. Gammon, of Putnam, Ill., the Gammon School of Theology, a Methodist seminary for negro students at Atlanta, comes into possession of $750,000. Mr. Gammon founded the school some years ago with a gift of $350,000, and the last will makes it one of the best endowed institutions in the south.—Springfield (Mass.) Union.

Teaching a new horse to come out of his stall at the fire alarm signal and range himself alongside the pole is not so difficult as might be supposed. Imagine a pair of new horses assigned to an engine. The surroundings are more or less terrible to them, but they are very gently and carefully handled and gradually lose their fear. Their tuition begins at once, and the driver is their teacher, assisted by the other men.

The ordinary signal is given, as if for a fire. The stall doors open, and the horses are led out, put in position, and in a few minutes led back. This process is perhaps a dozen times repeated. Great pains are taken that the animals shall not strike against anything, or be by any means frightened.

The unusual spectacle of a harness suspended in air is apt to disturb them at first, but they are led slowly up to it and induced to smell of it and inspect it on all sides.

After they have been led to their positions a few times they are allowed to come of their own accord when the signal strikes, though a man stands behind them to touch them up a little if they do not start promptly at the opening of the doors. Two weeks constitute the average period of instruction, but horses have been known to learn in one lesson. Others, however, are months in arriving at equal proficiency.—Road, Track and Stable.

Nerve Jarring Jocularities.

There is nothing in the world which produces the sense of mental nausea more completely, or is more certain to turn the intellectual stomach, than the use of certain jocularities of speech with which many people think fit to adorn their conversation. The people who seem to find it impossible to speak of an unmarried man except as "a gay bachelor," with whom the sea is always "the briny" or the "herring pond," and a horse "a fiery steed," who eternally talk about "Sunday-go-to-meeting" clothes, and who have such phrases as "no extra charge," "agitate the timbambulator," "the noxious weed," "the pipe of peace," "40 winks," and "braving the elements" forerunners on their lips, are capable of producing a sense of disgust in those who care to see language kept bright and clean which is absolutely intolerable.

It is difficult to say whether these cant phrases—that is, a perfectly proper description of them—are more odious when used consciously or unconsciously—that is, by people who believe them to be funny and intend that their hearers should consider them funny, or by those who have merely caught them up and repeat them like parrots and without any intention, good or bad.—London Spectator.

Dr. C. E. Hale, St. Paul: DEAR SIR:—Before going to your office I made suitable provision for my family, and, wringing the hands of those I love, I paid my taxes and settled my earthly affairs. I expected to suffer the tortures of the Inquisition, for my molars are the most sensitive part of my anatomy, and you will remember that I inquired somewhat minutely as to where dentists bury their dead, and what ratio of the condemned really survive; but I found your new method makes it about as pleasant to have a tooth filled as to have a photograph taken, and puts a new phase on the whole business. Very truly yours,
BILL NYE.

Amending the Air Line Railroad Act.
Approved March 2, 1893.
Section 1. Section 1 of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:
Section one. Whenever, after the passage of this Act, the Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, a corporation organized and now existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of Nevada, its successors or assigns, shall have constructed a first-class railroad of standard gauge, through the counties of White Pine, Esmeralda, Lander, Churchill and Washoe, said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, shall be entitled to receive the bonds of said counties, at the time and in the manner hereinafter provided, to the amount of three thousand dollars per mile for each and every mile of main track of said railroad completed in said county; provided, that said railroad shall be completed and in full operation within seven years from the date of the approval of this Act, and no bonds shall be issued under its provisions after that time.
Sec. 2. Section 2 of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:
Section two. Immediately upon the receipt by the Board of County Commissioners of either of said counties of a sworn certificate of the County Surveyor of such a certificate of the Surveyor General of the State of Nevada, setting forth that twenty miles of such railroad as herein mentioned, have been built and completed by said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, and in proper condition to receive the rolling stock, and that (that) section of twenty miles is a part of a continuous line of railway then in course of construction as hereinafter specified, it shall be the duty of said Board of County Commissioners of such county, and they are hereby directed, immediately to take such action as may be necessary to prepare and issue and to deliver sixty thousand dollars of the bonds of said county provided for in this Act to said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, and thereafter as soon as each successive twenty miles of railroad shall have been completed and ready to receive the rolling stock in such county, and the same shall be shown by the certificate aforesaid, the said Board shall issue and deliver to said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, the bonds of said county at the rate of sixty thousand dollars to bonds of (for) each section of twenty miles then completed in said county, and in case the last section necessary to complete the whole length of the road in said county shall not amount to twenty miles, then for such fractional section of twenty miles. Such bonds shall be issued at the rate of three thousand dollars per mile; provided, that no bonds shall be issued under the provisions of this Act after the lapse of seven years from the date of its approval, and no portion of said railroad then completed shall receive any bonds from said counties in aid of its construction.
Sec. 3. Section 4 of said Act is hereby amended so as to read as follows:
Section four. In each of the counties from which bonds may be issued under and by virtue of this Act, there shall be annually applied from the revenue of such county to the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds which shall have been issued from said county, a sum of money equal in amount to the sum which shall be collected by said county from said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, from the taxes levied upon the entire property of the said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, in said county, less the amount of taxes which may have been levied on and collected therefrom for State and school purposes, and the amount so applicable to the payment of the interest and the redemption of the principal of said bonds shall be placed in a separate fund, to be called the "Railroad Interest and Sinking Fund," which shall be applied: First, to the payment of the interest, as herein directed, and second, to the redemption of the principal of said bonds, as provided in this Act, it being the true intent and meaning of this section of this Act that the interest and principal of all of the bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be paid out of the revenue derived from (by) the respective counties from the taxes upon the property of said Utah and Nevada Air Line Railway Company, its successors or assigns, less the amount realized by said counties from the taxes levied for State and school purposes.

A NARROW ESCAPE

Uncle Jake McKissick Found in a Snow Drift.
Last Sunday Jacob McKissick left here with his team for his ranch in Long Valley. In the cedars at Red Rock, about 10 miles north of Reno, the snow was so deep that the team could not get through and he unhitched the horses from the wagon and rode one of them. The horse fell in the snow and Uncle Jake was thrown off and could not remount the animal. S. Peterson, who arrived here yesterday with a band of cattle, says his son Ross took a large horse to break a road through the snow for the cattle and found Uncle Jake in a snow drift partially buried with cold. He put him on a horse and took him to the ranch, about six miles from where he was found. He recuperated rapidly and was able to eat supper, and next morning left for his home in Long Valley. Uncle Jake is quite robust but he is over 80 years of age and cannot stand as much hardship as in his younger days. He had a narrow escape from being frozen to death, as it is doubtful if he could have survived a night in the snow drift. The road had not been used, and had it not been for young Peterson going that way to break a trail for cattle it is not likely that Uncle Jake would have been found alive.
Editing a Newspaper is a pleasant business—if you can stand it.
If it contains many advertisements the subscribers complain that they take too much space.
If there is a lack of advertising it is unpopular and the people won't have it.
If we attend church regularly they say we go for effect.
If we stay away from church they say we are monstrously heathenish.
If we accept an invitation to a wedding they say we were only invited to "write it up."
If we go to the opera-house they say we go on free tickets.
If we are seen upon the street too often they say we neglect our business.
If we avoid going on the street they say we don't bustle around after the news.
If we reject a long-winded communication its author becomes furiously enraged and discontinues his paper.
If we publish lengthy communications our readers say we lack discretion and put in anything "to fill up."
If we neglect to decorate our office on Washington's birthday they say we lack enterprise, and that there is not a drop of patriotic blood in our veins.
If we sell out in a new suit of day they say that we get our clothes "on tick" or advertising, and that "we are far too foppish."
If we sometimes perpetrate a joke, or make a stagger at a poor little pun, they say it is exceedingly light and won't do.
If we omit jokes, they say we are miserable old fossils.
If we publish a man who has brought disgrace upon his family, his friends or relatives of the family never forgive us.
If we, out of goodness of heart, decline to say anything about it, the man's enemies are disappointed, and we are branded as a white-livered coward.
We are able to stand these raps and many more, and are always ready to receive visitors, whether accompanied by a dog or not. Of course we do not care there is any work in running a paper; every one knows it is a snap.—Exchange.
Whisper the News.
S'bash! It is now whispered that Mrs. Cleveland is going to have a "s'bash"! It is said that she has gone to Buffalo to tell her mother that—s'bash! If the charming report is true it will be the first time the White House has ever been the scene of a "s'bash"! Good news travels like wildfire. Everybody was talking yesterday afternoon about the possibility of the popular President-elect being again—s'bash! How empty the honor of raising a cabinet compared with the bright prospect of being able to name a—s'bash! Only one cause for regret, though, and that is how many Baby Ruts regard her little—s'bash!—N. Y. Recorder.
Cattle Sales.
The Silver State says Levy & Judge, wholesale butchers of San Francisco, have purchased 1,050 head of beef from Col. Hardin, the cattle to be delivered within the next thirty days. Terms private.
E. M. Gibson, the Nebraska buyer, has also made another purchase of 750 head of cattle, which he shipped to Chicago Monday. This makes the third trainload he has shipped from this point. The cattle were bought of E. P. McJaney and Hayes & Co.
It begins to look as if beef will be in demand at good figures soon.

A MUSICAL SUCCESS.
Fine Singing Rendered in "A Turkish Bath."
Sprightly little Marie Heath and her company of accomplished and jolly players will appear at the Opera House Thursday, March 16th, presenting that much advertised and highly attractive musical success, "A Turkish Bath." Miss Heath will favor her many admirers by singing her own new composition, "Won't You Play the Game Called Kissing?" and also a new song written by Mr. Walter Dampin, and dedicated to Marie Heath, entitled, "I Don't Like Boys Under Ten." The latter composition she will render for the first time during her engagement in this city. The staging in "A Turkish Bath" is much superior to that which is generally heard in farce comedy and an evening of more than ordinary enjoyment is in store for the music-loving people of this city.
Philip B. Wall has of a London tea firm making a business tour of the world and at present is in this city. His firm is one of the oldest and richest tea firms in the world's metropolis, the head of it for many years having been the millionaire, Baronet Sir Richard Peck. Mr. Watkins is an old and trusted member of the house and has been selected for many years to conduct negotiations with the principal Chinese and Indian tea growers who control the markets of Canton and Calcutta.
"It is our rule," explained Mr. Watkins, "to visit the best plantations and arrange for the purchase of the new season's crop while it is yet growing. It takes considerable experience to be able to judge of the probable quality of a crop during its early stages, as the tea plant is subject to so many vicissitudes before picking. If the crop does not come up to expectations, we are often losers, but the usual practice is to bargain for the first offer, for which provision of course we pay a premium. The China tea, however, does not rule the market as it did before India and Ceylon discovered the fact that they could grow several kinds as well as their Celestial neighbors.
"All the best sorts, however, are still grown in China. Gunpowder, Hyson and all the high class green teas can be produced nowhere else. The very highest quality of the first named seldom leaves the land of its growth, the Chinese connoisseurs forming a ring which keeps it for the home market."—San Francisco Chronicle.
The Black Jack Inn.
A few days ago the ancient "hostelry" familiar to readers of Dickens as the "Black Jack" in Portsmouth street, Clare Market, closed its doors forever, as the entire block of buildings surrounding it is about to be demolished. The "Black Jack" is the house to which Sam Weller escorted his master when that gentleman was in search of Lewton, Mr. Pickwick's clerk, on which occasion Mr. Pickwick heard the story of the "Queer Client" related by the mysterious lawyer's clerk.
The "Black Jack" has for many years been a veritable mecca to the medical students who have successfully braved the terrors of the examination room, for it has been customary for them to adjourn to its hospitable bar and duly inscribe the names of the fortunate medical men in a register kept in the house for that special purpose. Among the signatures to be seen are those of James Paget and Andrew Clarke, together with many others who have since attained celebrity.
The death of the "Black Jack" adds one more to the ghastly taverns which have abandoned in the immediate vicinity. The "Spotted Dog," the "White Lion" of Jack Sheppard notoriety, the "Bill's Head," where Hogarth met his brother artists, and the "Spiller's Head," the Savage club of those days, all stood within a few yards.—London News.
Dunning by Postal Card.
There is a very general impression among merchants and others who are particularly interested in the subject that it is a criminal offense under United States laws to mail a dunning letter written on a postal card. A person in this neighborhood wrote to the first assistant postmaster general, asking for information, and received a reply giving the decision of Judge Tliayer, Dec. 14, 1889, on the wording of a postal card that was mailed and one that was not. The available one read: "Please call and settle account, which is long past due, and for which our collector has called several times, and oblige." The unavailable one reads: "You owe me $1.80. We have called several times for same. If not paid at once, we shall place with our law agency for collection."
The last sentence, it is stated, ruled out this communication. Postal cards are not available if they contain language of a "threatening character," and it is a very serious threat to the average man to tell him that you are going to sue him. There is no law, however, to prevent you from putting an X on your card to let your debtor understand that you are really cross with him.—Itasca Journal.
